Odd Lots of Portieres! At Very Substantial! Reductions.

Making a quick clearance of all the odd lots of Portieres == mostly one to four pairs of a kind -- and practically every color and shade you

There isn't another occasion in the course of trading that makes prices on regular stock so low. Several hundred pairs to sell, but they won't be long selling when there's so little asked in exchange for them.

MRS. ROOSEVELT'S BRILLIANT AFTERNOON AT HOME.

Last Night's Dances and Dinners-Events on Today's Social Calendar -Personal Notes.

Mrs. Roosevelt's reception yesterday-one of the largest she has held gave pleasure to hundreds. The White House was brightly lighted, and quantities of flowers added attractions nothing else can replace. The new terrace entrance was used, and gave unbounded satisfaction. The reception room for the diplomatic corps in the basement. a space formerly occupied as the boiler room, directly beneath the blue room, was also in use as it was on New Year day. It is bright and comfortable. The visitors yesterday approached Mrs. Roosevelt through the east and green rooms, Col. Bingham standing at her right near the blue room door. Mrs. Knox, Mrs. Bingham, Mrs. Cowles, Mrs. Cortelyou, Mrs. Rixey, Mrs. Loeb, Mrs. Barnes, Miss Hitchcock, Miss Louise Jones and Miss Knox were in the receiving party. At the table in the dining room Miss Roosevelt presided at the punch bowl and Miss Hagner poured tea. A section of the Marine Band played in the hall, and all the officers present were in uniform. The guests invited were: The minister of Sweden and Norway, the minister of Guatemala, the minister of Den-mark, the minister of Ecuador and Senora de Carbo, the Minister of Haiti and Mme. PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

Officers of Hancock Regiment Mustered in Last Night.

Hancock Regiment, No. 1, Union Veterans' Union, held a public installation of its officers for the current year last night at its hall, corner 5th and G streets northwest. The attendance was quite large, a preponderance being ladies-wives and daughters of the members.

Col. Frank T. Howe called the assemblage to order and received the division commander and his staff. He then in a few brief remarks, paying tribute to the past career of Hancock as the parent regiment of the order, introduced General C. V. Petteys, the division commander, who spoke a few words. The following officers were then mustered by Col. Geo. C. Hulse, the division mustering officer: Colonel, P. C. Bain; lieutenant colonel, C. B. Ballinger; major, S. H. Slaught; chaplain, W. H. Mills; surgeon, John Mangan, and quartermaster, James H. Barbour

Colonel Bain made a short address, and then turned the gavel over to W. D. Mabry, chairman of the entertainment committee, chairman of the entertainment committee, who presented the following program: Vocal duet by the Misses Middaugh and Rousseau; piano solo by Miss Albre; address by Representative S. D. Woods of California; Imitation of the battle of Gettysburg on snare drum by A. F. Springsteen; piano solo by Miss Lanahan; address by General Payne; piano solo by Mr. Arthur Hindel. Mr. Honey introduced a resolution which was unanimously adopted extending thanks to unanimously adopted extending thanks to all those who assisted in the entertainment of the evening. At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served.

and paintul illness.

Our father is sleeping, so free from all pain,
Oh, wake him not, Sweet Spirit, to suffer again.
He slumbers so soundly, oh, let him sleep on,
His slekness is ended and troubles all gone.
Oh, think how he suffered and mouned with pain;
In the long night hours we soothed him in vain,
Till God in His mercy sent down from above
An angel that whispered a message of love. May be rest in peace.
